

Do No Harm: A Webinar in Six Parts

A Fresh Perspective on Anti-Human Trafficking Work

Listen to frontline workers, survivors and policy experts share new perspectives, unintentional impacts and best practices rooted in solidarity and anti-oppression.

The series begins Tuesday, March 23 and recurs on Tuesday each week until April 30.

Who should register: community workers, healthcare professionals, advocacy agencies, lawmakers, law enforcement, or others working with trafficked persons or doing anti-human trafficking advocacy.

Please visit www.cnee.ca to register.

Certificate of completion will be issued to those who complete the series.

