Introduction

Wherever there are people in need of food and drink, clothing, housing, medicine, employment, education; wherever [people] lack the facilities necessary for living a truly human life or are afflicted with serious distress or illness or suffer exile or imprisonment, there Christian charity should seek them out and find them, console them with great solicitude, and help them with appropriate relief. This obligation is imposed above all upon every prosperous nation and person. (Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity).

Social justice and dignity is a human right that should be available to all His people. The community life standing committee provides the opportunity to promote restorative justice programs and organizations. It then documents all the inspirational works being done by your councils as incentive to our current members as well as a means of recruiting new members to join us as we help our sisters at home and abroad. It is essential that these wonderful works be recorded for our history and as a reference for members to use in presentations and correspondence. The survey will give us a better understanding of what your council is doing and what your members choose to focus on. It will also service as a method of highlighting all your amazing works.

Thank you for completing this annual survey. Your diligence in filling it out is very much appreciated.

Marie C. Rackley, National Chairperson of Community Life

With the upset in the Canada Summer Jobs application in 2018, and as a result of the religious communities speaking out against the application, a great hardship came to both high school and university students seeking employment during the summer to gain both financial help and experience in their field of studies. Organizations and church groups that depend on the federal grant were unable to fulfil their goals and objectives. As a result, Resolution 2018.01 Attestation Requirement on Canada Summer Jobs Program was adopted.

Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace

The CCODP is Canada's official Catholic overseas development organization, launched by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Due to a review that is currently being done by the CCCB and CCODP of program partners, we are unable to fulfil our commitment to the 1% Program at this time.
