With vineyards first planted in 1970, Redi and Roberto Quai drew on their European heritage to establish this scenic country estate. Roberto and his wife Lisa, opened the doors of the winery in 1990 and welcome you to experience the flavours and bounty of Lake Erie's pastoral north shore. At Quai du Vin Estate Winery (pronounced "K dew van"), the focus is the established winemaking and retailing operation that feature and compliment the vineyard and the scenic location Quai du Vin produces over 90,000 bottles per year and has celebrated its "Millionth Bottle" in July 2002.

The tour of the grounds and facility takes approximately 45 minutes. You'll get up close and personal with the vineyards, processing area, fermentation and barrel rooms. The tour finishes off in the retail store where you can sample their wines – all in the good company of one of the resident winemakers. This unique perspective gives you a fresh insight into each and every one of their products.

Sparta House Tea Room lunch – chicken pot pie, salad, coffee/tea, dessert

Following lunch there should be some time for shopping in the quaint village.
